

Summaries

Art and Design

- Sketch books – mark-making skills light/dark shading, shape & size
- Animal/skeleton/object movement sketches using 'futurism' as art source
- Matisse paper cut-out as movement art
- Works in the style of the studied artist

English

- Research non-fiction reference books
- Animal fact files using headings and subheadings
- Animal refuge park role play area and linked non-fiction writing
- Fiction reading ideas: Babe and A Mouse Called Wolf – Dick King-Smith, Charlotte's Web – EB White, Ratburger – David Walliams

Why are humans animals too?

French

- Polite and friendly greetings and introductions
- Identify where else in the world French is spoken
- Learn simple picnic food vocabulary – explore effective ways of securing vocabulary to memory
- Learn traditional French songs: Frère Jacques and Pomme de Reinette
- Healthy and unhealthy foods – label foods in French
- Listen to a simple story Monsieur Lapin in French and begin to join in and understand the general meaning
- Learning phonemes
- Have a class picnic in French – remembering those French manners!

Music

- Action rhymes
 - Body part/food song
- Music outcomes:
- Performance of rhymes and learned song

Applied Maths

- Bar charts
- Tables
- Data questions

Computing

- Use timers and apparatus to measure distance
- Data collection, analysis and presentation
- Research and graphics

Science

- Nutrition and main food groups
- Skeleton, backbones and muscles
- Carnivore, herbivore classification

